

STATEMENT OF FACT

Statement of Brook Hiddink: Law School Debt

I, Brook Hiddink, founder of High Ticket (BERH Stores & Consulting Inc. - FZCO), make this statement to document a claim used in High Ticket's advertising: that I left law school with approximately $180,000 in debt.

1. While I attended law school in Canada, I financed my studies with borrowed money. At its peak, this debt consisted of: (a) a Scotiabank student line of credit of approximately CAD $135,000, which was fully drawn; and (b) Canadian government student loans, federal and provincial, of approximately CAD $50,000.
2. Together, this was approximately CAD $185,000 of debt related to my legal education.
3. I repaid this debt in full in 2023.
4. Where High Ticket's advertising states a figure for my law school debt, it refers to this debt. The figures are in Canadian dollars.

I confirm that the statements above are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
